Brian Sanford offices in Dallas, Texas, at the Sanford Firm. A graduate of Southern Methodist University School of Law, he has been trying cases for over 30 years, specializing in representing plaintiffs in employment cases. Mr. Sanford is a board member and past president of the Texas Employment Lawyers Association, the Texas plaintiff's employment bar. He is Board Certified in Labor and Employment Law, as well as Civil Trial Law, by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. He has tried over 50 cases to a jury verdict, in addition to arbitrations and bench trials, and has an extensive appellate practice, as well.